HOAGLAND'S
NEW PATENT SHAFT COUPLING!
W. E. COOPER
HAS PURCHASED THE RIGHT FOR THIS County of the above Patent and will hereafter use it in the construction of all the Vehicles manufactured at his extensive Carriage Factory,
Corner of Second and Morrison Streets
He respectfully refers to the following
CARD.
Having examined the New Patent Shaft Coupling invented by H. R. Hoagland we feel pleasure in informing the public that in our opinion it is the safest and best method of connecting shafts or tongues to all vehicles that has ever been used
It fastens without bolt or screw and is therefore easily and speedily separated. It rests on Gutta Percha so as to be entirely free from the rattling sound which so often disturbs restless horses. It is easily changed so that the shafts or tongue may be detached in an instant, and is convenient, safe and secure
It is easy to change to this style of coupling any buggy or other vehicle now in use and with small expense. We have come to the conclusion to use this new invention ourselves and recommend its use in all cases. We consider it far superior to the Brewster Patent heretofore considered the best in use

[DISPATCHES TO THE OREGONIAN]

EASTERN DATES TO FEBRUARY 26

Congressional

WASHINGTON Feb 25 In the Senate Williams from the Committee on Commerce reported a substitute for a bill incorporating the Missouri Kansas and Texas Railroad Company

Howard reported with an amendment the bill to fix the place of junction of the Union and Central Pacific Railroad Companies

Howard introduced a bill to divide the State of Texas and to establish the Territories of J[illegible] and Matagorda Referred Howard explained the bill. He said a division was considered necessary in view of the exceedingly extensive area of the State and its incongruous character of population. The assent of Texas would be insisted upon to this arrangement before its admission to representation. Referred to Committee on Territories

Wilson introduced a bill to prevent prize fighting. It provides for the punishment and imprisonment for not less than two years and a fine of not less than $3 000 for engaging in a prize fight in any Territory or State, and half penalty for acting as seconds or surgeons

Among other bills introduced was one by Starkweather, to provide for building a first class steamship to aid in restoring commerce and carrying the U S mails also one by Hoar to establish a system of national education

Jencks, from the Committee on retrenchment reported a bill to establish a department of Justice. Recommitted

WASHINGTON Feb 25—In the House Sargent offered his resolution of inquiry into the expediency of separate legislation for the taxation of fruit distillation which was adopted

The Committee on Elections was discharged from further consideration of the charges against the loyalty of Representatives from Maryland

Kelly presented a memorial for the appropriate celebration of the centennial anniversary of American independence

The House adopted an amendment to the legislative appropriation bill for the branch mint at Carson City, and for the Bureau of Education

Butler of Massachusetts from the Reconstruction Committee, reported a bill to admit the Georgia representation in Congress and asking to have it put upon its passage but yielding to various suggestions, he had the bill recommitted and ordered printed. He gave notice that he would report it back on Tuesday

Beck offered a substitute which was also ordered printed

The House considered and disposed of a large number of private bills

Benjamin, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, introduced a bill defining the duties of pension agents, which with various substitutes and amendments was ordered printed and recommitted

Shanks offered a resolution, which was adopted instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to ascertain if any officers of the army or navy have been concerned in the irregular appointments of cadetships by requesting such appointments, or knowingly passing upon, or accepting officially such nominations, also to inquire into and report in relation to money or other improper considerations in the premises

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Indian appropriation bill, appropriating $3,186,935

Sargent, who had charge of the bill as a member of the Committee on Appropriations, explained its provisions and exposed the dishonesty and speculations practiced under the general Indian treaty system. He denounced the late massacre of Indians by General Baker's command, as related by Vincent Colyer, and compared it to a massacre. He regretted that the hero of Shenandoah had to stand sponsor to such a deed as that.

Paine said, if Sheridan is responsible for that massacre his responsibility is very great but for one he could not believe the statement (that of Colyer particularly) after reading the order and report of Sheridan, and his instructions to Hancock in November, 1869

Sargent said he was not condemning Sheridan or the General of the army. He was simply striking at the system. There was no warrant for destroying women and children because their husbands and fathers were robbers

The discussion was continued by Clark, who condemned the whole system of Indian treaties and by Lawrence on the same side

Wilson defended the system but advocated the correction of its abuses. The House proceeded to consider the bill by sections

Clark moved an amendment that hereafter Indian tribes shall be considered incapable of making treaties. Ruled not in order. Further debate ensued, when the Committee rose and the House adjourned till Monday

Washington News

CHICAGO, Feb 26.—A Tribune Washington special says Dawes carried every point approved by him in the general appropriation bill except that continuing the mint at Carson Nevada giving it $91,000. This he opposed. One of the provisions of the bill abolishes extra compensation to civil officers of every grade. Another prohibits the use of contingent funds for paying clerks or messengers. Another carries into the Treasury all expended balances one year in existence. The bureau of education is continued another year with an appropriation of $40 000

The United States Court of Claims has rendered judgment in the case of Barnsheimer and others of New York for $185 000 against the United States, for the proceeds of cotton taken at Savannah, the largest judgment ever awarded by that Court

The Times' special says that the Senate Territorial Committee have agreed to report a bill providing a Territorial Government for Alaska. The House Committee is at present adverse to such a bill

Mr Revels Takes His Seat

Mr Revels was conducted to the front of the President's desk by Mr Wilson and the oath administered. He then took the seat assigned him on the Republican side where members of the Senate and others tendered congratulations

Postal Telegraph

WASHINGTON, Feb 25 President Orton of the Western Union Telegraph Company made an argument before the Senate Postal Committee to-day, in opposition to the Hubbard bill. He gave statistics to show that telegraph rates in this country are less per mile and that the telegraph is more used here in proportion to the population than in Europe. He opposed the bill because it would not protect the public against monopoly since it would be easy for the Western Union Company to take possession of the organization. He said the receipts of the Western Union Telegraph Company last year were six and a half millions and the expenses four and a half millions. The same amount of business would under the Hubbard bill produce less than two millions one million short of what his company paid for salaries. [illegible] would increase fifty per cent the volume of business and would still leave a deficit of more than a [illegible] He concluded by submitting a proposition that the company be released from all taxes which would allow them make an average reduction of one seventh of the rates which the present tariff gives them. The Cadetship Bribery Investigation

CHICAGO Feb 26 —Washington specials are mainly devoted to an account of the proceedings in the Whittemore expulsion case in the House yesterday. The Times' dispatch says it is reported the delay asked by Whittemore on [illegible] day was for the purpose of getting his resignation before the House and thus escape its sentence and the story excites indignation as Logan allowed the case to go over without a vote after the previous question had been ordered at the special request of Whittemore on the ground that he desired to say something further in self defense. The same dispatch says that all those members who are somewhat implicated in the cadet business tel[illegible] for[illegible] day Butler [illegible] l[illegible]s t [illegible]

The Military Committee had a long session [illegible] the [illegible] business. Members say that the [illegible] jury shows [illegible] cause [illegible] in the case [illegible] and that the evidence shows that the Butler of Tennessee appointment was made without any understanding directly or indirectly as to the amount to be paid but that after the appointment was made [illegible] of the appointee interested in the success of the party in Tennessee gave Butler one thousand dollars for campaign purposes

The Committee on Military Affairs were engaged all day investigating the case of Golladay charged with selling a cadetship

Georgia

CHICAGO Feb 25 —The Tribune's Washington special says that the Senate Judiciary Committee on the Georgia case hold that no further legislation will be necessary with reference to the proceedings of the Legislature of Georgia this winter and it is believed they will report in favor of regarding as legal and well advised all acts of the former Legislature except the unseating of colored members. It is not yet known how they will decide the Senatorial question

CHICAGO Feb 26 —The Tribune's New York special says a number of delegates from the various branches of the Monitor Association, which is organized similar to the Vigilance Committee of San Francisco held a session last evening. A committee was appointed to confer with the District Attorney but were instructed to take no illegal steps in advancing the objects of the Association. Her agents here say the Schmidt is very slow and they think there is no ground for serious alarm at present

ho in ancient times repaired to the Delphi for instruction as to coming ceived responses which could be in in any way to suit results, and reputation of the oracle for prophetic ge was maintained It would be the reputation of some of the politi rs of our time if they would employ n their prophetic declarations Or ll, since their fondness for prophecy e checked, they might profitably imi- example of the clever Frenchman ced the time for the fulfillment of his ons at such a distance that nobody fely question them day the Herald takes occasion to re- at a great revolution in public senti going on which will speedily 'hurl icals from power A day or two observed that the time probably was ant when "brave William Mungen" read his inaugural address from the portico of the Capitol, while Grant ve fled before the frowns of a free " style of prediction is easy and cheap, common estimation is rendered some- nreliable by the fact that it has been at all times during the last ten years we were assured with positive cer- that the "great reaction" was in prog- nd would culminate in a signal Demo- victory that year. The result, we be- was otherwise, and it certainly was not who "fled before the frown of a free " Again, when Mr. Pendleton was ated in Ohio last year the Herald was ssive glee about the coming "reaction." ited for the result, and this time again not a "Radical" who "fled" with pre- ion, but it was the great greenback of the Democracy who made that undig- retrograde movement. So it has been ances without number; and the louder k of a "reaction" has been, the more ete on every occasion has been the tri- of the Republicans The repeated ngs to the "Radicals" of their impend- nihilation are therefore not quite so asive as they are intended to be, and ets who have failed so often in their sings should not be surprised or of- t if their words now fall unheeded upon s of an unbelieving generation se political soothsayers join denuncia- with prophecy, and never tire of assert- at the "Radical party" has committed most atrocious crimes; that it is the op- or of the people; that it is driving the ry with frightful speed to bankruptcy uin, and that in its mad course it is ling down and destroying all the liber- of the people. Such has been the y song for about ten years, yet the e stand by the party which is thus ac- and denounced, and year after year re- t the ballot box their expression of con- e in it, and again and again declare it y to control and direct the destinies of untry. Why do a free people support ty? Is it not because that party gov- wisely and justly? There can be no reason. We can therefore point to the ted judgments of a free people as an ef- e answer to such prating as that of the d, and are warranted by the past in giv- assurance that more decisions of the kind from the people are yet to come.

otal Increase.............. 166,928

.—The counties marked thus* have failed to make s for 1869 up to the 22d inst.

n the supposition that the figures to be rned by Union and Baker counties will s large as those of last year, the increase xable property during the year 1869 ld be $166,928. So long ago as 1860 the ble property of Oregon was rated at $23,- 951. The property of the State cannot be much less than double what it was in ; yet it is returned at figures only a little ter.

here is a radical wrong in our present e of assessing property and levying taxes, cially for State purposes. The control of matter is now entirely in the hands of the ty authorities; and it would seem that e of the counties are very anxious that returns of taxable property shall be as l as possible so that they may escape a ion, of the burdens of State taxation ng the last ten years the taxable property ultnomah county, as shown by the assess- t rolls, has doubled. A few more coun- show an increase during the same period, m others the decrease is large For ex- le, the decrease in Lane county since is over half a million, and in Polk it is ly as much Both of these are rich and ving counties, and contain far more th than they did ten years ago Other mples of a similar kind might be given how far this is attributable to a desire to pe from taxation for State purposes we ot say; but it looks as if the principal culty lay in that direction he decrease in the assessed value of prop- in Marion county during the year 1869, e above table shows, is $355,000, and the er says plainly that property in that ty last year was purposely rated low in r to avoid the payment of State tax In Marion has only followed the example of ral other counties, and the table above ws that Wasco last year, acting no doubt he same principle, cut off at one stroke third of the valuation of her taxable erty and thus diminished by one-third amount to be paid into the State Treasury he remedy for this, as we have often ob ed heretofore, is in the creation by the slature of a State Board of Equalization necessity for it has grown so apparent we hope and trust the next Legislature attend to it promptly The action which e of the counties have taken in reducing valuation of their property so greatly is ece of injustice to other counties which still return their property at a fair valuation and it is a piece of injustice so flagrant that it can be no longer borne

The Albany Democrat clamors for more greenbacks It wants $400 000 000 more issued and that amount of bonds paid off with them The Democrat is more moderate than its party was a short time ago when it was demanding the issue of enough green backs to clear the debt all off at one sweep

If there is one thing more than another which the Oregon City Enterprise can come out strong on that one thing is centraliza tion In fact with it 'centralization' has taken the place of the traditional 'nigger in the wood pile,' and it sees evidences of the monster everywhere. The last protest of the Enterprise against "centralization" is inspired by the Congressional temperance movement, in which it sees another and most dangerous attempt on the part of Congress against the rights of the States and the liberties of the people' If members of Congress can assume the right to start a temperance movement what will be their next monstrous assumption of power? Is it not plain that the drift is toward "centralization?" Will the people submit to this last act of usurpation?

A fever has broken out in New York which is known as the "relapsing fever' The Herald evidently believes with Falstaff that 'a good wit will make use of anything and even turn diseases to commodity' Therefore it ascribes this fever to "Radical legislation" One cause of the fever is poor and insufficient food and the Herald tells us that by 'Radical legislation the poorer classes of people are re duced to such an extremity of low diet and starvation that this disease, heretofore un- known among us, breaks out and threatens to spread its ravages throughout our cities " Now it is a fact that there never was a time when the people of this country as a whole, the poorer classes included, were in better circumstances than now; and they have often been in a far worse condition Wages have often been lower and food more scarce and more dear than now, and several times, es- pecially after great financial revulsions, the streets of our large cities have been filled with hungry multitudes who had to be fed at public expense. All this, too, happened while the Herald's party controlled the Gov- ernment.

Mrs. Admiral Dahlgren and Mrs. General Sherman are organizing an anti woman suffrage association in Washington, and are already hold ing meetings to show that women ought not to take part in public affairs.

A member of the Alabama House of Representa tives, whose seat is contested, on the 1st inst., sent the Speaker a letter in which he said "To- morrow I am to be married, and on Saturday I take the boat for Mobile, thence to Montgomery. I think it but fair, under the unusual circum- stances, that I should be given time to appear before the body to make my defense. Any inde- cent haste on the part of the Legislature would not be creditable 'Twas a crushing reply Thiers made in the Chamber of Deputies to the British Free Trade cant: "Do you indeed wish to build up around "France a Chinese wall?" "No!" said the great Protectionist statesman, "I wish to develop the "labor of my country—that is, I wish to create it "where it is not, and to maintain it where it is." The whole body of Political Economy is in that sentence. It is, too, an unanswerable condem nation of the entire doctrine of Free Trade, which kills the labor of the country that adopts it as a policy.

General Adam Badeau, who rendered distin- guished services on General Grant's staff during the war, was recently United States Secretary of Legation at the Court of St. James, and is now on duty at the White House, has written an article, which will appear in the March number of Harper's Magazine, entitled "Our Relations With England." It presents some new views of the topic treated, which are understood to have the sanction of the President himself, and makes public for the first time some interesting facts re- garding the foreign complications arising out of the late war.

The New York papers treat the legal tender de- cision about as we might have expected them to. The Tribune finds in it a notification of the near approach of specie payments, and warns all per sons concerned to "set their houses in order" and "stand from under" The World says it comes much too late in the day and is "about as valu able as a set of medical prescriptions for all the deceased persons who have died within the last eight years." The Times sees that the decision will cause hardship, but does not see that the con stitutionality of the law itself is impaired in the least. The Herald does not believe that the "father of greenbacks" is going back on them now, and is confident that the constitutionality of the act will be affirmed at an early day

The Pullman Palace Car Company is waxing fat. It has lately absorbed the Central transpor tation company, its great rival, which was run ning sleeping and drawing room cars on over 4,000 miles of railway, including the Michigan Southern, Lake Shore, Erie, New York Central Hudson River and Pennsylvania Central rail roads, taking a ninety nine year lease of all its property, patents and privileges, also the South ern transportation company, which had sleeping car contracts on over 1,500 miles of railway—so that it has, now, substantially got control of the whole sleeping and drawing room car business in the country out of New England With the Cen tral transportation company's business it takes all its cars, 119, while it is building seventy new ones of its own To enable it to carry this in creased business, the Pullman company has en larged its capital stock from $1,750,000 to three millions, and proposes to add still a million more as other contemplated additions to its business require Of this increase a quarter of a million is distributed as a stock dividend and the rest of ferred to the old stockholders at par The com pany has paid twelve per cent in regular quarter ly dividends the last year, and now seven per cent extra in cash, besides the stock dividend Pullman and his friends have what they call in Washington a 'good thing,' —and they deserve it

Navigation of the Umpqua

ROSEBURG, Feb 27 Capt Haun treated our citizens to a ride on his steamer Swan to day the boat being crowded with delighted people after which he was presented with a suit of clothes, ac companied by thanks and hearty congratulations all of which the hero of Umpqua received in his usual felicitous manner The Swan has a carry ing capacity of 150 tons The water is only at fair stage, and the rapids were passed with much more facility than any anticipated Weather fine

THE WEST

The Owyhee Avalanche has again changed hands and will be published hereafter as a no party paper, instead of as a Democratic sheet as formerly

British Columbia authorities are trying to de vise some course to keep the peace among the coast Indians who are warring savagely on each other and on the whites

A rich strike is reported in the Wide West mine, Alturas county, Idaho, which, if true, is a big thing The rock pounded up in a mortar yielded a dollar to the pound.

The Nevada Enterprise says that the Piutes are terribly frightened about earthquakes They are much more alarmed than even the most timid women in the city Every day they say, "Injun heap no like um Ground too much bellyache."

The Victoria Colonist says In response to a memorial from the business men of this city Su perintendent Lamb has decided not to dismantle the telegraph line at present. All the opera tors, however, will be called in and the offices closed.

There will probably be eight hundred men em ployed in the placer diggings of Owyhee, next spring Men who have become tired and dis gusted with hunting after a big thing are now satisfied to work claims that will pay from four to ten dollars per day to the hand and plenty of such placers exist there.

The Boise Statesman of the 19th says There is a report of new discoveries of placer mines in the hills, about seven miles from this city, in the direction of Idaho Some Mexicans have been camped up there and been prospecting. The pros pects are on the hills, high above the possibility of getting water but they packed some dirt down to water, and a flour sack yielded three bits

Of the proposition to annex a portion of Idaho to Nevada the Owyhee Avalanche says. "We should be guilty of hypocracy were we to attempt to disguise the fact that a very large majority of the people of Owyhee county are in favor of an- nexation to Nevada, and as the aggregate senti- ment of the masses of the people is always honest, and generally right, it will not be unprofitable to inquire why it is they wish to change their politi cal relations from a Territorial to a State Gov ernment.

OREGON

A Salem paper says We noticed yesterday several peach trees in bloom and pear trees just bursting their buds. Remember, this is February

The Farmer has begun its second year The first volume has been reasonably successful as a business undertaking and quite useful as an agri cultural newspaper.

The Statesman says that Howell Prairie pre- cinct, Marion county, which gave Smith (Dem) thirteen majority in the last election, now stands as follows. Republicans, 55, Democrats, 29, Doubtful, 7.

We learn from the Mercury that the valuation of all property in the city of Corvallis is $347, 847 39, assessable property for 1870, $356,637 99, indebtedness deducted, $80,000; amount taxed for 1870, $276,637 93

Rare Ben Butler

[From the N Y Herald, Feb 11]

The Essex statesman achieved the greatest vic- tory of his career in the House yesterday Noth- ing that he has ever done before, whether in the military, the forensic, or the administrative line, has equalled it He whipped out two enemies, and although he did not secure the results of his victory he withdrew from the field with all his colors flying, his drums beating and the banners of his enemies trailing in the dust First, rare Ben attacked his old enemy Dawes, on economy, and this time with eminent strategy he chose the economical side himself He proposed that the appropriation of half a million dollars usually devoted to paying the mileage of members be vir tually stricken out This terrific blow for econo my demoralized nearly all the members present, even including Dawes Rare Ben followed it up with a speech, and drove it home with some as tonishing statements and most of the members were kept silent by their inward reflections, the nature of which is obvious One or two finally ventured to reply in opposition and then the re action set in and nearly every one gave Butler a seathing, among them, unfortunately, Cox, of New York Cox is a very small man in stature Butler is nearly as big as the Cardiff giant When the outcry against him was over Butler rose and made a good defence against all his enemies until he came to Cox, who had been so good naturedly satrical that it required genius of an extraordinary nature to make the fitting answer He waved his hand at Mr Cox and said "Shoo, fly, don't bod der me" The effect was electrical The House broke into a roar of laughter, but Cox, flushed with anger, ventured to reply, which exceeded parliamentary decorum In the confusion that ensued the mileage motion was lost, but rare Ben walked about the hero of the field

STATED SERMONS — The subject of the Drinking Habit and its Cure was handled in a very able manner by Rev Mr Eliot at Oro Fino Theater, last evening The speaker's remarks were, in some respects very practical, and contained ad vice which it would be well for all to follow. The subject announced as the probable one for next Sunday evening was, "The Under Tow of the city of Portland"

Rev Mr Sellwood's sermon to young men, at Trinity Church, on "The Young Man's True Path to Happiness" was well received and embraced much that was calculated to convince young men of the land that correct habits are necessary to [illegible] and happiness

The audience at the Baptist Church was well repaid for their attendance by the many good points contained in the instructive discourse by Rev E C Anderson, on "The Homes for our Times: How made Happy." An application of the principles enunciated would make the fireside more pleasant than it is in many families

NEW TO DAY — Under this head in our adver tising columns will be found the card of Chas Dimon, who has established a commission house in New York and offers to buy, sell and forward all kinds of merchandise. He is known to many people in Oregon and is perfectly reliable. A letter from him is published in our market review this morning

We also call attention to the advertisement of L W Morgan who is prepared to furnish shade trees shrubs flower bulbs and roots of rare kinds to those desirous of ornamenting their grounds.

Messrs Russell & Ferry, real estate agents, offer to loan $5,000 to any man who will give re quired security

The Hartford Publishing Company want to employ agents to sell Sam Bowles' great work, Our New West.

THE DEDICATION — The occasion of the cere monies connected with the dedication of the Odd Fellows Hall, to take place to-morrow, will likely prove very interesting The Lodge room is about completed and is being furnished in an elegant manner A great number of persons from abroad are expected to be present who, with the several lodges in the city and their friends, will consti tute a large crowd The most ample preparations are being made to render the ball in the evening an occasion of a very enjoyable character.

THEATER—FULL HOUSE.—At the matinee given by the Gregorys last Saturday afternoon the house was densely crowded, a majority of the au dience being children, who were highly delighted with the entertainment, which was vastly amusing to older folks as well as the little ones. The attend- ance in the evening was also large To-night some new features will be introduced which will give additional attractions to this already excel- lent exhibition

FIRST LECTURE — We hope that our readers will bear in mind the lecture to be delivered this evening, at Philharmonic Hall, by Rev. Thos. Condon of Dalles City Having heard this gen tleman we feel justified in saying that the lecture will be replete with interest and instruction The price of admission is fixed so low—twenty five cents—that everybody can afford to attend Sub- ject An Attempt to Show How Oregon was Made'

CITY TAXES — Our neighbor of the Herald frightened some of the tax payers by a notice in the local column that all taxes not paid to-day would be declared delinquent. It should have been within thirty days from to-day Mr Beck ensto City Treasurer has removed his office to No 94, Front street, with Pat Smith, where he will be prepared to meet tax payers and receive city taxes for the next thirty days.

POOR PLACE TO SLEEP — Passing up Alder street last Saturday night at a late hour, we found a man lying on the sidewalk between Third and Fourth in an apparently helpless con dition Whether he was intoxicated and couldn't do any better or had chosen that particular spot of his own free will he must have found it an un comfortable cold somewhat damp and consider ably hard bed

SCHOOL DISTRICT No 21 — Mr W Dalton School Clerk of District No 21 embracing East Portland furnishes the following as the census of his district Number of legal voters 159 Num ber of males over four and under twenty years of age 83 Number of females over four and under twenty years of age 105 Total number of child ren of school age 188 an increase of 47 over last year

IMPOSTORS.—We learn that parties have been traveling through Oregon representing themselves to be agents of large English mercantile houses, and offering to fill orders for various kinds of goods of English manufacture at about one-fourth the usual price in this country. After bargaining for the sale of these goods, which they always say "are coming by the next steamer," these "bilks" will, in a careless way, show some goods which are, apparently, of fair quality and offer them at a moderate figure. Having im pressed their victims with the idea that they are selling the articles at remarkably cheap rates, they usually succeed in making sales. They assure their customers that they can completely revolutionize the business of this country by introducing their goods. They agree to furnish good three ply carpet at 25 cents per yard, Brussels at 50 cents, heavy grain sacks at $1 per dozen, etc. They offer at a fair price per yard cloth for men's clothing, which they agree to cut and put together for 25 cents a suit, intimating that they have engaged a number of tailors who are also "coming by the next steamer." These parties have operated some in this city, and are, doubtless, imposing on the credulous.

CIRCUIT COURT.—The Circuit Court, Hon. W. W. Upton Judge, was in session last Saturday. The proceedings were as follows:

E. Groves vs. School District No. 6, demurrer to complaint sustained.

W. P. Durant vs. W. J. Bradbury, demurrer overruled, and allowed until Monday next to apply for time to answer.

Daniel T. Stimson vs. Levi Estes et al., amendment to answer by erasure allowed.

Thomas Smith vs. Multnomah county, demurrer to complaint overruled, and defendant standing by demurrer, judgment was given against defendant for $119 and costs, to which [illegible] excepted.

State of Oregon vs. A. J. Moses, convicted of assault, with strong recommendation by jury to the mercy of the Court. Defendant fined $100 and costs.

[illegible].—The occasion of the ceremo[illegible] with the dedication of the Odd Fellows' Hall, to take place to-morrow, will likely prove [illegible] interesting. The Lodge room is about [illegible] and is being furnished in an elegant [illegible]. A great number of persons from abroad [illegible] to be present who, with the several lodges in the city and their friends, will constitute a large crowd. The most ample preparations are being made to render the ball in the evening an [illegible] of a very enjoyable character.

[illegible] FULL HOUSE.—At the matinee given by the Oriental last Saturday afternoon the [illegible] was densely crowded, a majority of the audience [illegible] children, who were highly delighted with the entertainment, which was vastly amusing [illegible] as well as the little ones. The attendance in the evening was also large. To night [illegible] new features will be introduced which will give [illegible] attractions to this already excellent exhibition.

[illegible].—We hope that our readers will bear in mind the lecture to be delivered this [illegible] at Philharmonic Hall, by Rev. Thos. [illegible], of Dalles City. Having heard this gentleman we feel justified in saying that the lecture will be replete with interest and instruction. The price of admission is fixed so low—twenty five cents, that everybody can afford to attend. Subject: "An Attempt to Show How Oregon was [illegible]."

CITY TAXES.—Our neighbor of the Herald [illegible] some of the tax payers by a notice in [illegible] column that all taxes not paid to-day would be declared delinquent. It should have been within thirty days from to-day. Mr. Back[illegible], City Treasurer, has removed his office to No. 81 Front street, with Put Smith, where he will be prepared to meet tax payers and receive city taxes for the next thirty days.

POOR PLACE TO SLEEP.—Passing up Alder street Saturday night at a late hour, we found a man lying on the sidewalk between Third and Fourth, in an apparently helpless condition. Whether he was intoxicated and couldn't [illegible], or had chosen that particular spot of his own free will, he must have found it an uncomfortable, cold, somewhat damp, and considerably hard bed.

SCHOOL DISTRICT No. 21.—Mr. W. Dalton, [illegible] Clerk of District No. 21, embracing East [illegible], furnishes the following as the census of [illegible] district: Number of legal voters 159. Number of males over four and under twenty years of age, 83. Number of females over four and under twenty years of age, 105. Total number of children of school age, 188, an increase of 47 over last year.

RECORDER'S COURT.—The proceedings of Saturday embrace the following:

J. Tires, assault and battery. Plead guilty and was fined $5 and cost.

Mary Lee; drunken conduct. Fined $5 and cost. Both defendants paid, and were discharged.

Steve; drunkenness. Sent up for two days.

COURTS.—The United States District Court will meet this morning at ten o'clock.

The United States Circuit Court will meet to-morrow morning at the same hour.

The Circuit Court, State, has taken a recess until next Saturday.

The County Court has adjourned until next term which will begin on Monday next.

LEGAL PROCEEDINGS.—In the United States District Court, on last Saturday, the Grand Jury came in and presented two bills of indictment endorsed True Bills, and on which bench warrants were ordered, and one bill against J. A. Fisher, endorsed Not a true bill.

IN A BODY.—The members of the Vancouver Lodge of Odd Fellows propose to attend the dedication in this city to morrow in a body. The Lodge at Oregon City will also probably come in the same way.

FAVORS.—Our friend, Lieut. Jas. A. Waymire, has placed us under obligations by sending us several public documents, pertaining to the State Government of California, where he is now a resident.

HAD NOT ARRIVED.—The San Francisco and Victoria steamers, though both due at this port, had not arrived up to the hour of going to press. They will probably be in this morning.

"WEEKLY COMMERCIAL."—The first number of this paper made its appearance last Saturday. It is well gotten up, typographically, and filled with good reading matter and late news.

LAST DAY.—This is the last day of the month, as everybody knows. It is also the last day which the law gives wherein to return the annual statement of income to the Revenue officer. It is also the last day allowed for the school clerks to make their annual reports in order that each district may receive its share of the public school funds.

EPILEPTIC FIT.—A young man was suddenly seized with convulsions in front of a restaurant on First street yesterday forenoon, and fell to the sidewalk as helpless as if life had left him. He was taken up and cared for and was soon better.

Submarine Cable to Asia

Mr. Corbett of the Senate Committee on Commerce has reported a bill to encourage telegraphic communication between America and Asia or, in other words, a Pacific Cable bill. We find in the New York Times of the 11th inst. an epitome of the bill with comments thereon, from which we present these extracts:

The bill reported by Mr. Corbett provides that the starting point for the cable shall be south of Cape San Juan, in Washington Territory. The line which the American and Asiatic Telegraph Company originally estimated, and to which substantially, we presume they still adhere, was about 5,000 miles long. But the Islands of the Pacific offer a great advantage in breaking this long line and in this respect the enterprise is less hazardous, so far as the establishment of the line is concerned, than its Atlantic predecessors. The distance from San Francisco to Cape San Juan, in Washington Territory is 700 miles and this part of the line is already built. There begins the ocean cable proper, which, proceeding northwesterly, finds its first station at Sitka, a distance of 630 miles. Thence proceeding due west 500 miles, it touches Kodiak, where we have, or lately had a military post. Thence, stretching southwesterly along the Alaska peninsula and the Aleutian group of islands 430 miles, it touches Oonalaska. From that point it leaves American islands behind, and 600 miles to the west, reaches the island of Attou, and with 650 miles more, Urup, the latter on the Asiatic shore. Another stretch of 300 miles carries it to Hokodadi, in Japan, where its mission proper as an ocean cable may be said to end. But, with a northerly move of 200 miles, it reaches Poseyat, where, on the mainland of Asia, it will connect with a branch, already built, of that great Russian overland route which continues to the mouth of the Amoor river. From Poseyat a southerly trend of 650 miles (also submarine) carries the cable to Nagasaki, whence an easterly branch may continue 600 miles to Yokohama, and a westerly one of 450 to Shanghae, the latter to connect with the East India Telegraph Company's line, so encircling the globe.

These were the stations, we say, and these the distances estimated a year or more ago, and if they have been, or shall be slightly changed, it can only be in the way of improvement. Even as they are, it is clear that no distance between adjacent points in the line is greater than seven hundred miles, which is a trifle in ocean telegraphy. And again, it is clear that the strict trans-Pacific course—say from San Juan to Hakodadi, is only 3,190 miles in length, while that from Sitka to Japan is only 2,490. It is evident that the project is perfectly practicable and that it need not be long before we have daily news here in New York from Japan and China, as we have it now from England and California.

President Grant's Success.

The New York Times in the following paragraph makes a plain and truthful statement of the estimate in which the present Administration is held by the country at large:

Whatever may be the sentiments of adverse cliques, the great body of the people are as cordially disposed as ever toward President Grant, and retain an undiminished faith in his willingness and ability to carry on the affairs of the nation in such a way as to promote the "greatest good of the greatest number." The occasional calumnies of the President's political opponents only attract the attention of a very limited circle. The people at large never heed them, but judge the Government according to its acts, and without the slightest reference to the representations of its enemies. While the Democrats are eagerly pursuing the ignis fatuus of "a great reaction," and while a few restless politicians are fancying they discern the signs of a winning popularity, the President adheres to the simple plan of doing his duty faithfully toward all, without seeking to gain credit for it on the one hand, or to silence the voice of detraction on the other. The Republican party has every reason to be satisfied with his general course, and while General Grant has gone too far to please some, and not far enough to please others, it is quite certain that he has won the approval of the larger part of his supporters and of the nation.

An enterprising Missourian cut out a sheet of ice 250 feet long and 165 feet wide, and ten inches thick, and started to raft it en masse down the Mississippi to St. Louis, 109 miles distant. One end of the field was shapened to serve as bows and the other end rounded for a stern. A skiff was fastened to each side to give the requisite sheer when necessary, and a cook stove and provisions were taken on the ice. After a prosperous voyage of twenty miles the concern unfortunately ran into an ice-bound point of land, and broke into three pieces. Although it was dark at the time, all the men and the cook-stove were saved, but the ice broke rapidly up and disappeared in the darkness. The projector of the scheme will try it again, and is confident that he can do better next time.

Anything and everything, that any Sewing Machine is capable of performing can not only be done, but excelled on the GROVER & BAKER. Wm. Currier & Co., Agents.

MOSS AGATES are found on the Green River and a few other points on the Pacific Railroad. They make very handsome sets for Jewelry, and are considered very Stylish. B. L. Stone has a fine assortment of this elegant Jewelry for sale.

RAILROAD MATTERS are very likely to be lively this spring. The East Side Company will engage a large force of men to complete their road to Albany, and the West Side Company will, very probably, build a portion of their road in order to obtain a land grant to facilitate the building of their line to McMinnville. Kohn & Fishel are keeping up with railroad times. Their stock of spring goods coming across the continent by rail will be the largest and finest stock of Clothing ever imported to this State. Their stock in store now is offered very low to make room for large arrivals. They are manufacturing the neatest Boys' Suits and always have on hand a large stock of the same which are offered at lowest figures.

VALUABLE.—The recent bill before Congress granting aid for the construction of a railroad from the Columbia river to Puget Sound, if passed will make the large tracts of coal and timber lands owned by the Puget Sound Homestead Association on the Skookum Chuck and Newaukum very valuable.

A few shares only remain untaken and can be had at the office of the Secretary or of Mr. Conklin Canvassing Agent.

REMOVAL.—J. W. Campbell has removed his new Patent Bed Bottom manufactory to Messrs. Jensen & Bethlefsen's Cabinet and Carpenter shop, southeast corner of Morrison and Fourth streets. Although but recently introduced, the Minnesota Bed Bottom is fast coming into general use and is giving general satisfaction. Come and see it. j20d1m

The Living Machine.

Injure the main spring of a watch and every portion of the works becomes disordered. The human stomach is to the human system what that elastic piece of metal is to a chronometer. It influences the action of the other organs, and controls, to a certain extent, the whole living machine. The comparison may be carried further: for as the weakness or other imperfections of the main spring is indicated on the face of the timepiece, so also is the weakness or other disorder of the stomach betrayed by the face of the invalid. The complexion is sallow or faded, the eyes are deficient in luster and intelligence, and there is a worn, anxious expression in the whole countenance which tell as plainly as written words could do, that the great nourishing organ whose office it is to minister to the wants of the body, and to sustain and renew all its parts, is not performing its duty. It requires renovating and regulating, and to accomplish this end Hostetter's Stomach Bitters may be truly said to be the one thing needful. The broken main spring of a watch may be replaced by a new one, but the stomach can only be repaired and strengthened, and this is one of the objects of the famous vegetable restorative which for eighteen years has been waging a successful contest with dyspepsia in all climates. As a specific for indigestion it stands alone. When the resources of the pharmacopœia have been exhausted, without, at best, doing more than mitigating the complaint, a course of this wholesome and palatable, yet powerful stomachic effects a perfect and permanent cure. In all cases of dyspepsia the liver is more or less disordered, and upon this important gland, as well as upon the stomach and bowels, the Bitters act with singular distinctness, regulating and re-invigorating every secretive and assimilating organ on which bodily and mental health depend.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise, which commands here, and in the markets of the interior, a relatively higher price, excites the cupidity of some manufacturers, and every day he sees increasing the number of those who, by counterfeit or imitation of his mark, seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G. VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

An Affecting Letter

ATEMENTS OF JAMES T CRUMP, IN A LETT HIS MOTHER BEFORE COMMITTING SUICIDE

From the Salem Statesman

equest of the many friends of the late James mp and also the request of his Lodge we mitted to publish the following letter writ his mother on Monday last It is to be hoped e young men of this town who are allow emselves to be allured into the path that so fatal to their friend, will heed his dying , take warning by his sad fate and avoid he chance of temptation

PORTLAND, Feb 21st 1870

AR DEAR MOTHER —Long ere these sad lines have reached you, all that is left of your good boy will have passed from this earth t mourn over me, I am not worthy of one as I am now. Oh! that I had done what I going to do now before I rendered miserable est of wives and the most indulgent of moth My reasons for the act I contemplate if it is ble to reason or justify such an act, are as s m out of employment, and in debt to all my ds, and I would have to find a gold mine to them all. Admitting that it were better r to pay them than to do this thing, I lose ve already lost their respect, which is worse death to me For say what you will, when n fails to meet his word in money matters there he ceases to be a gentleman I I was e, I could take my hat and walk to a strange but to desert Julia in that manner would, look at it, do her greater injustice than my ont course, and God knows I have wronged nough already. Better for her, poor girl, had never seen me. Love her and help her all can, in her trouble, for the sake of your boy s was. * * * * * * If I did not her so much, or if could do anything to make hate me, then I might induce myself to drag a miserable life in some manner But know how much she loves me, and thinking that ything that I do is right, I have not the con nce e to come back to her and say, "I have de ed you and will try and do better" I would ten to her, but I have not the heart to tell her I ought. I am afraid it will either kill her or her crazy when she hears it, but break it to as gently as possible. She may think hard e for not writing to her before, but I have this in contemplation ever since I left home t how hard it was to part with you all, and in particular. In conclusion, let me say If ad any good qualities, remember them, and as my many faults, forget them.

have been very wicked, but I never stole any ng, or wronged any one intentionally.

know the public will think that there has been ouble between Julia and I, but you know different. s the thought of having deceived her in re d to my business affairs that goads me on to this. Angel that she is, she never gave me a proach or a cross word, and never would say ything, and that is what makes me feel so much worse.

never told her, however, that I was ever well do. But I gave her to understand, and it was right to expect that I could and would take e of her, at least, as well as she was accustom to, and in a manner of independence, at least d now, as circumstances are, the thought is too miliating for me to bear. It may require a eat deal of firmness for a man in his right mind voluntarily take his own life, but it requires ll more to live out his right number of days and dure the slights of his former friends, and the morse of his own conscience. Another thing is, know that Julia will be cared for, for her own ke, if not for mine, for it is impossible to know r and not love her.

I have shed many, many scalding tears over my lies, and on account of the trouble that I have ven those who love me.

This is a world of love and wickedness, and I ave had more than my share of love bestowed pon me, and have certainly acted my part of e latter. I am just as cool and calm as ever I ss, and not excited, nor out of my head in any anner.

I have written more than I intended when I commenced, but it has been a relief to me.

Tears will come as I write, not for myself, but r you and for Julia, and all who I think will op one in return for a fallen one. But as I said fore: Do not mourn for me, but rather forget e, for I, who should have been a blessing, have roved a curse to you in your old age. Read his to Lilburn and tell him, receive no credit for anything, unless he knows where and when he an get the money to make his word good. And bove all, tell him never to acquire a habit of laying any game at cards or billiards for whisky.

Oh! my poor forsaken wife! May He who pro tects the widow and the orphan, give her strength o bear her lot better than I have mine. I have o reproaches to offer any one except myself. I ave been treated better than I deserve. I have ruined myself and made my friends unhappy.

But I have been sufficiently punished in my wn mind already, and if it should please God hat we meet again in a brighter and happier land, e it. 'Tis more than I can hope for.

I know it will be hard for you to read a letter ke this, but I thought it would be some satisfac on to you to know that my last thoughts were nly kind ones for you and all.

Kiss Julia for me. Good bye.

Your erring son.

JAS. T. CRUMP.

The Situation in Tennessee.

[From the Chicago Republican, Feb. 3.]

Our Nashville letter depicts a deplorable condition of affairs in Tennessee, consequent upon the subversion of the State Constitution, through a prostitution of the forms and instruments of law, and the election of a thoroughly Democratic Legislature, hostile to he spirit of loyalty. Many of the legal bar iers which the Republicans had erected for he protection of a long down-trodden, vic im race, for the promotion of the cause of education, and for the punishment of lawless ness, have remorselessly and malignantly been swept out of the statute book, as so much useless rubbish Gov. Senter, even supposing him to have been opposed to these wholesale and vicious repeals, was powerless to resist the onset of ex-rebel vandalism, for he reason that the Executive of Tennessee is not clothed with the veto power. But we do not believe that the interposition of a guber natorial negative would have prevented what has been done with such evident malicious in tent. The Democratic majority in each branch of the General Assembly is such that two-thirds of both could easily have been ral lied, if requisite to pass any measure over the Governor's veto.

From other sources than our correspon ent, we have information which shows that his picture is not at all exaggerated While loyalists in the western and middle sections of the State regard with apprehension the he radical changes which have been made n the code of laws, and are in many instances looking forward to a period when a home in Tennessee will be too uncomfortable and un safe to be endured, the blacks, still more de fenseless, regard with dismay the rapidity with which their franchises are melting away under the heat of partisan, ex rebel prejudice No longer entitled to hold office, nor to be tried by a jury of their own color, deprived of the common school privileges heretofore accorded; and made vagrants, in contempla tion of law, unless they secure regular em ployment by the first of each year, the ne groes may well stand aghast at the prospect before them. When, to all these startling circumstances, is added the prevailing law lessness—the midnight visitations, the mur derous assaults, the Ku-Klux scourgings, the vindictive threatenings—well may the colored population tremble, and all law-abiding and law-upholding citizens hide their heads in shame. But the end is not yet A Constitu tional Convention is in session in Tennessee Some of the propositions made to that body are exceedingly proscriptive, discriminating, and unjust in provision As mere proposi tions, they would not attract much attention, but it is known that the temper of the dele gates is in accord with such propositions, and outsiders fear that retraction and disloyalty will proceed to the full extent of what is be lieved to be discretion

From all accounts, the condition of affairs in Tennessee is fully as bad and deplorable as it was four years ago, with a growing tendency to worse The Governor—professed Repub lican as he is—is cut off from all means of en forcing the laws by the passage of the act de priving him of all authority, heretofore con ferred, to call out the militia to suppress domestic violence. Ku Klux bands rove at will through the western half or two-thirds of the State, inflicting lynch law, and are unmolested by the accredited authorities of the State In deed, we may say that affairs in Tennessee are more deplorable than they are in any of the States contiguous, not even excepting Georgia.

A queer mode of punishment lately adopted by a certain Poughkeepsie school, is that of compelling a student to run around the school house four hundred times, whole distance five miles. The offender is cured by being made an invalid

OREGON PRODUCE IN NEW YORK

We have just received the subjoined letter in reference to certain articles of Oregon produce in the New York markets, which we publish entire as a matter of interest to the trading community in general

NEW YORK Feb 7 1870

EDITOR OREGONIAN

The interesting letter which appeared in your issue of the 8th ult, upon the resources soil and character of Oregon, I hope may meet the eye of every one who are seeking homes and information of where on the Pacific slope the most advantages can be derived under one State government Surely, I think Oregon possesses that which few, if any other State in the Union does But I cannot withhold commenting upon a portion of the letter which may be found in the 11th article, upon Manufactures—successful character of our enterprises etc touching upon the flour which has been marketed in New York, and "shame to say, under the name of California

I think I have the right of claiming some interest in the State, for in 1853 the firm of which I was a member 'Wakeman Dimon & Co,' sent several vessels to Portland, with assorted cargoes one of which bore the name of the senior partner of the well known banking house of your city, the senior member of which, before establish ing banking privileges, was the appointed consignee of both vessels and cargoes. Such was the growth of the country and of Portland that some six years ago I visit ed the State and taking the river so proudly named from its bar up to Lewiston thence back to Portland and the overland route down into California, fully compre hended all that the future had in store, and that the res idents of the State would require their goods of their own ordering, rather than from those who were foreign to their wants by being non residents

Upon my return I established myself as a solicitor of Oregon patronage in buying and selling, rather than ex porting as heretofore, whereupon I received the business of one of your leading agricultural merchants and others in Portland, Salem, and other parts of the State, also the agency of two of the brands of flour mentioned in the letter referred to.

Oregon brands have no successful competitors on the Pacific slope. What the brands of other Oregon flour may have been shown as, or sold under, on the Produce or Flour Exchange floors in New York the two above have always been represented as Oregon productions and now command equal prices with those favorite family brands of St. Louis flours which are mostly sought after in the New York market. By the circular which I issued last season, the Oregon flours were expressly re ported, which no other issue ever done unless by a spe cial attention of the reporters of the market called to it by me. The tameness of the produce business has not warranted sending out circulars this season, for no con signment of Oregon flour has been received here save to me of Imperial, which upon its arrival brought $9 50 ℔ bbl from the steamer's wharf

From my early days Oregon has had a high estimation in my thoughts, and to-day I believe there is no one in the East, who does not claim her as their native State or home, that more earnestly pleads her wonderful capaci ty and future destiny; and I believe that eventually she will be the recipient of the Western ocean traffic through the mouth of that noble river, with which to supply the numerous States surrounding its source and contributing to her wealth.

CHAS. DIMON

No material changes are noted in our report to-day The week past has witnessed more signs of a revival in trade circles, and the indications are fair for an average amount of business during the spring

The California and Victoria steamers will be due to-morrow A sufficient amount of freight is now ready for shipment to load both

It is fair to presume that the trade by which the Wallamet Valley is supplied will open up more briskly in a few days, as dealers are now preparing to lay in their spring stocks Our merchants and dealers generally an ticipate a very substantial improvement in this respect, at an early day.

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

623 KEARNEY STREET, NEAR COMMERCIAL

San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency [illegible] Skin Diseases of [illegible] years standing and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated Horrible Diseases.

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are dragging out a miserable existence from the effects of secret indulgences or from virus absorbed into the system. Look at their pallid emaciated and inflamed faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation thousands linger until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of those horrible life destroying maladies—see that they are cared for and cured before it be too late Send them immediately to Dr Gibbon a physician who has made private diseases his especial study for years and who is certain to cure the most inveterate cases without mercury or any injurious drugs It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors that infest all cities publishing their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places He therefore cautions and makes a rigid inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans

Seminal Weakness.

Seminal weakness is the unequaled self-abuse This solitary vice or improper sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent, producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms, unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head, ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances, a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face, furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption, night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained, should apply immediately, either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument, binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME, by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case, symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded, free from damage and curiosity to any part of the country, with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars, sent in registered letter or through Wells, Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus sworn to certificates impose the unwary Some of the self styled doctors, whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places, are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers, newspaper carriers, intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory, and you will not find their Medical Institutes in it, but you will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets, for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten, are bogus, there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patient's letters, etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
